

THAMES VALLEY 4x4 CLUB

SITE INFORMATION SHEET

Oxley's Shaw

Description: Oxley's Shaw is the home site of Thames Valley 4x4 Club. It is a compact site just outside of Bradfield, Berkshire. The site is located in woodland on sandy soil. Thames Valley 4x4 club have developed the site, preparing hazards throughout the woods for beginners and experts alike. The club manages the woodland in accordance with a management plan agreed with West Berkshire District Council.

Off-Roading: The site is split between two woods. In the southern woods a large bomb-hole creates climbing and descent challenges. In the northern woods a series of dug obstructions create a mud run and various sand/water based trial. Around the perimeter, a track exists to provide an easier drive for those starting out.

Facilities: There is usually a mains fed jet wash facility on the site (local restrictions may apply). The club trailer provides toilet facilities and a burger van is available for snacks.

Directions: From Junction 12 on the M4 take the A4 west, towards Newbury. Stay on the A4 for a mile until you reach the major roundabout junction with the A340. Turn right for Pangbourne.

After 200 yards turn left onto minor road signposted Bradfield.

Carry on for almost two miles to a crossroads in Bradfield College, carry straight on over and down the hill. As you start to go uphill (still in 30 mph area), take the first left called "Back Lane".

Follow this twisty lane for almost two miles until you come to a T junction.

Turn right at the T junction. The site is around three quarters of a mile up this lane on the left hand side.

GPS: Burnt Hill Road, RG7 6DU

OS MAP REF:SU 566 729

Warnings: On-site: A one-way system may operate through the Mud Run at certain times. The bomb-hole is strictly marshal controlled, observe marshal directions at all times. Do not leave the marked tracks, this is to protect the woodland and flowers. The "car-park" is a working farm yard, be aware of farm machinery and do not allow children to play on the equipment or anything stored in the yard.

Off-site: Back Lane is very narrow, care is needed when approaching the site.
